

Christmas Card Lane is all decked out with this year's Christmas Cards that are traditionally placed in a line around the block that houses the Chamber of Commerce. These vibrant cards are the hard work of students. This year Sierra Robinson (right) and Sarah Nelson (left) created the cards that adorn the line that begins on Oak Street. Their work will surely bring Christmas magic to all.