

Ms. Leslie Lolley, Ms. Linda Johns, and Mrs. Edith Wildt's kindergarten classes were treated with a reading session with Superintendent Adrian Cline on Friday, March 26, 2010. The subject of the visit, giraffes can't dance! To the astonishment of the little ones as this revelation was confirmed while Superintendent Cline read the book titled accordingly Giraffes Can't Dance. The students were delighted as the Superintendent read on about the tribulations that Gerald the giraffe was put through as he tried to learn how to dance.
