

History Flicks* Presents “Ding” Darling National Wildlife Refuge Provided by: Jessica Cisneros

History Flicks will be presenting “Ding” Darling National Wildlife Refuge” Wednesday, December 1, 2010. This film will be shown in the Board Chambers at the Desoto County School District Office at 2:00 pm.

According to WGCU Public Media, this film tells the story of Jay Norwood “Ding” Darling a pioneer in the American conservation movement. He was known for the many feats he accomplished in his lifetime which included winning the Pulitzer Prizes twice. The greatest impact he made though, was through his efforts toward the conservation of wildlife especially in Sanibel Island. His dedication is forever resonates by the presence of the wildlife refuge that bears his name.

Do not forget every Wednesday is a History Flick Day!
