

The first grade class of Mrs. Dunshee and Mrs. Anderson are shown above with Superintendent Adrian Cline.

Superintendent Adrian Cline reads to the first grade class of Mrs. Dunshee and Mrs. Anderson. It is important to ingrain reading into our students lives especially in the development of first graders.

Superintendent Adrian Cline visits Mrs. Bradshaw's first grade class in Nocatee Elementary School.

Mrs. Bradshaw's class listens to Superintendent Adrian Cline read with rapt attention. This exposure is critical for young students to become appreciative and aware of the joy of reading.